âEuros IâEuros"ve just listened to a press conference with Eskil Pedersen, chairman of the Norwegian Labour Party Youth League. Despite his lack of sleep and all tears during the night he had the strength to firmly establish that what had occurred was an attack on the Norwegian labor movement. The horrendous blast in Oslo City and the carnage in the idyllic island Utoya were political attacks.âEuros âEuros Mass murderer, Anders Behring Breivik, is no maniac in the Norwegian societyâEuros" margins. He is a well-adjusted and well formulated Christian, right wing self-employed âEuros entrepreneurâEuros . Islam hater, tall, blond and handsome.

He has deliberately targeted the Labour Party as a symbol of people with marxist views and he calls himself âEuros Marxist HunterâEuros . Just hours before the massacre on the island former Prime Minister Gro Harlem Brundtland spoke to youngsters at summer camp. Earlier on Facebook Breivik named her as a murderer and a traitor to her country. Breivik has also connections with English Defence League.

âEuros Eskil Pedersen managed to cope with the unimaginable murders. âEuros WeâEuros"re going back to UtÅ¶ya,âEuros he said:

âEuros We stand by our ideas. We are anti-racists and we stand for solidarity.âEuros" âEuros Words we never will forget.

âEuros Breivik's opinions have grown in some of the lush-right habitats of the Eastern Norway. A reactionary quagmire of âEuros nationalâEuros conservative extremism. Brown milieus lushing also in Sweden. We have our serial killer of âEuros immigrantsâEuros in Malmo south of the country. From where I live it is the same distance to Malmo as to Oslo. Both physically and politically.

âEuros Our Prime Minister, Fredrik Reinfeldt from the Conservative Party, says that we shall not concern ourselves with Breivik`s political motives.

âEuros But for us the opposite position is necessary and obvious.

âEuros Together, in solidarity, we must do everything possible to realize the vision formulated by Eskil Pedersen:

âEuros We`re going back to Utoya.âEuros" âEuros
