Minister of the Interior Retailleau, in line with the practice of his predecessor Darmanin , continues to use the weapon of dissolution to ban opposition to their policies. Groups like Palestine Vaincra have already been dissolved on vague grounds that do little to hide the fact that they are pretexts to silence voices in solidarity with Palestine.

This procedure is part of an unprecedented Islamophobic context and a few days after the assassination of Aboubakar Cissé, which the government has sought to minimize. Indeed, Urgence Palestine is one of the main organizations in France that mobilizes the youth of working-class neighborhoods in solidarity with the resistance of the Palestinian people. A people who must face the genocide led by a far-right Israeli government that has the support and complicity of "Western democracies" including Macron's France. Once again, support for the Palestinians is being suppressed and its voices stifled.

The NPA-Anticapitaliste gives its unfailing support to Urgence Palestine and absolutely condemns this attempt at dissolution. We must stand together to defend Urgence Palestine against this outrageous decision. The NPA-Anti-capitalist remains steadfast in its opposition to Israel's genocide, colonial, apartheid and ethnic cleansing policies. We stand by those who are mobilizing and leading this fight in France.

Solidarity is not a crime!

No to the dissolution of Emergency Palestine!
