From midnight on March 6, Swedish dock workers will take all out-strike action after a major assault by the Ports of Sweden who falsely claim that the union broke off negotiations, in order to try and undercut popular support.

The employers threaten blacklisting of activists in an anti-union assault that has not been seen in Sweden since the 1930s, as well as further proposed deterioration in pay and other conditions.

Messages of solidarity are urgently needed and should be sent to:
