

<https://www.internationalviewpoint.org/spip.php?article7069>

Central African Republic

The shipwreck of the Central African Republic...

- IV Online magazine - 2021 - IV554 - March 2021 -

Publication date: Monday 15 March 2021

Copyright © International Viewpoint - online socialist magazine - All rights reserved

The Central African Republic is still not emerging from the most serious crisis it has known since it became independent. France's policy, from the colonial period until now, partly explains the endemic violence that reigns in the Central African Republic.

PS:

If you like this article or have found it useful, please consider donating towards the work of International Viewpoint. Simply follow this link: Donate then enter an amount of your choice. One-off donations are very welcome. But regular donations by standing order are also vital to our continuing functioning. See the last paragraph of this article for our bank account details and take out a standing order. Thanks.

[1] Denis Sassou - Nguesso , "Africa is attacked because it is weak", interview in Paris-Match, December 17, 2013.

[2] Paul Martial, "Central African Republic: France's hidden responsibility", afriquesenlutte.org, 7 October 2014.

[3] International Crisis Group (ICG), "Reducing electoral tensions in the Central African Republic", Africa Report n ° 296, December 10, 2020.

[4] MINUSCA, Report of the Secretary General on the Central African Republic, S / 2020/994, October 12, 2020.

[5] UN, "RCA: Security Council renews arms embargo for one year while creating an exemption for rocket launchers", July 28, 2020, news.un.org.

[6] Marc Lavergne, "Resolving a conflict without looking for its causes? The CAR between sham and amnesia ", 2014.